

A vibrant spring landscape featuring rolling green hills under a blue sky with soft clouds. In the foreground, there are several colorful tulips (orange, pink, red) and yellow daffodils. A large, smooth, brown egg-shaped rock is on the left, with a small butterfly perched on it. In the bottom foreground, there are several decorated Easter eggs in shades of pink, purple, and green. A small blue bird is perched on a log in the middle ground. The overall scene is bright and cheerful, representing the Easter season.
